NEWS RELEASE

Murder Victim Identified

On February 6, 2006, San Antonio patrol officers responded to a burning body call at New Hwy 90W and Loop 1604W. When officers arrived, they discovered a burning body and could only determine that the victim was male. The Bexar County Medical Examiner's Office has identified the murder victim as being Marshall Iglesias, 06-05-75.

Several hours before Iglesias' body was found, SAPD responded to 2306 E. Houston for a kidnapping call, where Iglesias was reported to have been kidnapped by four or five unknown Latin males. Also taken in Iglesias' kidnapping was his 2001 Chevrolet truck, which was later found burning in the 400 Blk. of Bethune St.

Homicide detectives are asking for the public's help in identifying the suspects involved in Iglesias' murder. Detectives have released the below description of the suspect's car and are asking anyone with information to please call SAPD Homicide at 207-7635 or 207-7389.

SUSPECT VEHICLE

White Chevrolet P/U with a bed liner, "CHEVROLET" in Black bold letters on the tailgate.
